NinjaTrader Launches Cryptocurrency Support through Coinbase

Denver, CO, Monday, August 6th, 2018 - NinjaTrader, LLC has announced a new integration with Coinbase to support cryptocurrency market data. Bitcoin, Ethereum, Bitcoin Cash and Litecoin real-time market data are now available to all users of NinjaTrader's award-winning platform. The addition of Coinbase market data will allow cryptocurrency traders to leverage NinjaTrader's award-winning charting and market analysis capabilities.

"The rapid rise of the cryptocurrency markets demonstrates the interest in digital assets and the need for a professional grade trading platform to monitor these highly active markets is evident," stated Raymond Deux, Founder and CEO of NinjaTrader. "We are excited to provide a more robust charting and analysis experience for Coinbase products to help cryptocurrency traders uncover opportunity and make more informed trading decisions."

NinjaTrader's award-winning analysis tool suite includes:

Advanced Charting: Visualize price movement through fully customizable charts including 100+ indicators, various chart styles and powerful drawing tools to aid in your technical analysis. Load corresponding markets on a single chart to identify developing patterns.

Market Analyzer: Monitor cryptocurrency markets in real-time based on predefined conditions to quickly uncover opportunities. Customize lists through a variety of data points, trigger alerts when pre-defined conditions are met, and filter instruments dynamically based on data from any column.

Backtesting & Optimization: Verify trading ideas using NinjaTrader's high performance backtesting engine. Simulate trading strategies on historical data and analyze past performance setting a custom period value for ultimate control over timing of historical executions.

Advanced Alerts: Stay on top of cryptocurrency market moves ensuring you don't miss any trading opportunities. Configure sophisticated alert-triggering logic with simple point-and-click construction to deliver custom messages or send updates when conditions are met.

Real-time and historical market data from Coinbase is available now for all NinjaTrader users. NinjaTrader is always free to use for advanced charting, backtesting and trade simulation.
