Options on Futures Now Available through NinjaTrader Brokerage

Chicago, IL, Monday February 4th, 2019 - NinjaTrader Brokerage has announced the addition of options on futures to its suite of award-winning services. This expansion allows options traders to save on their trades through NinjaTrader's deep discount commissions while benefiting from industry-leading support.

"We are excited to expand our brokerage services while maintaining simple, discount pricing for our traders", stated Eliot Wickersheimer, President of NinjaTrader Brokerage. "As a leading provider of futures brokerage services, the addition of options on futures will provide our clients the flexibility to hedge positions to help manage risk, trade volatile markets with reduced exposure and further diversify their portfolios."

In addition to the free NinjaTrader platform included with all NinjaTrader Brokerage accounts, options on futures traders will also receive free access to the CQG Desktop web-based platform for options trading and analysis.

"The ability to trade both futures and options on futures through NinjaTrader Brokerage with deep discount commissions to help keep trading costs low appeals to a large segment our clients", commented Wickersheimer. "We are excited to deliver on their requests for access to options on futures as well as the opportunity to support new options traders ready to benefit from our simple low rates & proactive client services."

NinjaTrader Brokerage is immediately available to accept new Options on Futures accounts. Contact brokeragesales@ninjatrader.com to learn more.
